TEACHING

Invited Faculty, Institute of the Linguistic Society of America

University of Arizona, 6/26/89 - 8/4/89 (Course taught: Phonology)

University of New Mexico, 6/26/95 - 8/4/95 (Course taught: Phonological Theory)

Indiana University, Courses Taught

Undergraduate: Introduction to the Study of Language (L103, 12 times)
Introduction to Phonology (L307/410, 10 times)
Ebonics: The Controversy Over African American Vernacular English (E103/C103, Topics/Critical Approaches course, 11 times)
Topics in Linguistics (phonological typology, L485, 1 time)

Graduate: Introduction to Historical Linguistics (L530, 1 time)
Phonological Analysis (L542, 15 times)
Morphological Analysis (L544, 5 times)
Advanced Phonological Description (L600/L642, 16 times)
Seminar in Phonology (L712, 9 times)
Current Issues (L700, 10 times: topics include Loanword phonology, Phonological typology, History and grammar of African American English, and Linguistics in Antebellum America)

Other Teaching

University of California, Santa Cruz, Fall term, 1996 (Introduction to Linguistics)
